COMPENSATION REQUESTED

30. As set forth in this Application, Trustee and HF seek approval of $133,900.00 in fees and $3,095.87 in expenses incurred from July 1, 2023 through December 31, 2023. The blended hourly rate for HF timekeepers is $352.74.

31. The Application readily meets the standards of section 330 and applicable case law for compensation for services rendered by the Trustee. The time HF spent on the services rendered and the rates charged for such services were reasonable and necessary, given the complexities of this case, to fulfill her role as Subchapter V Trustee in line with the Johnson factors adopted by the Fifth Circuit in In re First Colonial Corp., 544 F.2d 1291, 1299 (5th Cir. 1977) as further discussed below.

FIRST COLONIAL FACTORS

32. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Local Rule 2016(a), fee applications must include a discussion of the factors considered in American Benefit Life Ins. Co. v. Baddock (In re First Colonial Corp. of America), 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977). Consideration of the factors listed in First Colonial Corp. indicates that the compensation requested by Trustee for the services rendered during the Compensation Period is reasonable:

(i) Time and Labor Required. As set forth in detail on Exhibit A, the Trustee spent 379.60 hours during the Compensation Period performing her required duties as Trustee to the Debtor. Of this amount, 143 hours were billed at paraprofessional hourly rate of $150.00 by Elyse M. Farrow, an attorney at HF². Utilization of Ms. Farrow to assist the Trustee in performance of her duties resulted in a significant savings to the estate.

(ii) Novelty and Difficulty of the Questions. The services of a Subchapter V Trustee require special knowledge of the Bankruptcy Code. This case also presented certain challenges not customarily found in most Subchapter V cases due to the notoriety of the Debtor and its principal.

(iii) Skill Requisite to Perform the Service Properly. As stated above, acting as a Subchapter V Trustee required knowledge of the Bankruptcy Code and, in particular, its' provisions as they relate to Debtors' rights and duties under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(iv) Preclusion of Other Employment Due to the Acceptance of the Case. To the extent the Trustee devoted time performing her duties and assisting the Debtor, she was precluded from performing legal services on behalf of other clients. Aside from the foregoing, there was no

² The US Trustee's office was contacted about the utilization of Ms. Farrow to assist Trustee with her expanded role in this case. The US Trustee's office indicated no objection to the use of Ms. Farrow if she was billed at paraprofessional rate instead of her normal hourly rate of $400.00 (through 12/31/23), while reserving rights to object to the reasonableness of any fees billed.

(v) Customary Fee. The Trustee has requested a total fee which she feels is reasonable under the circumstances, given the expanded scope of her appointment. The hourly rates applied for are the normal rates charged by the Trustee during the period of its service. In the opinion of the Trustee, such rates are in line with the community standard for comparable work. Additionally, the $150 hourly rates charged for Ms. Farrow are reduced from her normal hourly rate of $400.00, which provided a benefit to the estate.

(vi) Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. The fees in a bankruptcy proceeding are always contingent upon ultimate approval by the court and contingent upon there being assets available with which to pay such fees.

(vii) Time Limitations imposed by client and other circumstances. Subchapter V imposes certain deadlines which must be met. No other time limitations were imposed by this case.

(viii) Amount Involved and Results Obtained. Trustee worked to monitor Debtor's operations and investigate financial transfers. Trustee assisted in stabilizing the Debtor's operations and was instrumental in persuading the Debtor and the plaintiffs to mediate their dispute. Although the mediation has been discontinued, Trustee continues to work with the parties in hopes of achieving a global resolution of disputes through a consensual plan.

(ix) The experience, reputation, and ability of the professionals. Melissa A. Haselden is board certified in business bankruptcy by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She believes she is generally recognized in this district for her abilities and competency, particularly in the field of bankruptcy law.

(x) The Undesirability of the Case. The notoriety of Debtor's principal and related litigation with the plaintiffs lend a level of undesirability to this case.

(xi) Nature and Length of Professional Relationship with Client. The nature and length of professional relationship with client is not a factor in this proceeding.

(xii) Awards in Similar Cases. Trustee maintains that the fees requested herein are similar to fees awarded in other cases of a similar nature. The Trustee made every effort to limit fees while also providing necessary services and support to the Debtor.

SECOND INTERIM APPLICATION.

33. The Trustee requests the Court to authorize compensation to be paid to Trustee and HF in the amount of $133,900.00 for fees which it incurred between July 1, 2023 and December 31, 2023. The Trustee also requests that this Court authorize reimbursement to it for expenses totaling 3,095.87.

ESTIMATED AMOUNT TO PREPARE SECOND INTERIM FEE APPLICATION.

34. The Trustee further requests payment of $2,050.00 related to preparing, serving and prosecuting this Application, for an aggregate total of $139,045.87.

CONCLUSION.

WHEREFORE, the Subchapter V Trustee requests that the Court:

a) Authorize allowance, payment and reimbursement of $139,045.87 to Trustee, representing (i) fees of $133,900.00; (ii) expenses of $3,095.87; and (iii) costs of $2,050.00 for the preparation, service and prosecution of this Application, less the sum of $85,308.47 (representing payments made pursuant to the Fee Procedures Order);

b) Authorize approval of payment of $53,737.40 to Applicant and that Debtor make the payment from any funds currently held; and

c) Grant such other and further relief to which the Subchapter V Trustee may be justly entitled.
